

Natalie Levkovich
Executive Director
Health Federation of Philadelphia

Natalie Levkovich is Executive Director of the Health Federation of Philadelphia, a position she has held since 1987. She served as Director of Program Development for the three prior years. The Health Federation serves as a keystone supporting a network of Community Health Centers as well as the broader base of public and private-sector organizations that deliver health and human services to vulnerable populations.

As leader of this nonprofit public health organization, Ms. Levkovich has played a critical role in convening and connecting organizations in the public and private sectors and mobilizing resources to expand service capacity and increase access to care. Under her leadership, the organization has grown to a current operating budget of nearly $30 million and employs 100 staff.

Ms. Levkovich serves on the Community Advisory Board of the Penn Prevention Research Center and was previously chair of the Collaborative Family Healthcare Association. She has served on numerous other local and national governing and advisory boards, and previously served on the HCIF Board from 2012 -2017.
